

American Recovery and Reinvestment
Act of 2009

Green Job Workforce Development

May 4, 6 & 7, 2009
California Energy Commission

Chris Graillat
Media and Public Communications Office

Program Overview

Program will meet goals for

- Creating and retaining jobs
- Energy efficiency
- Water efficiency
- Clean energy sources
- Clean transportation

Program will be coordinated with State Workforce Development Strategy

Program Overview

Target populations

- Dislocated workers (e.g., construction workers)
- Incumbent workers (re-skilling)
- New workers to build 21st century clean energy workforce

Program Overview

Key elements

- Technical training
- Contextualized basic skills (“soft” skills)
- Train the trainer and professional development for instructors
- Standardized and replicable programs
- Measurable results
- Job placement and retention
- Sustainability

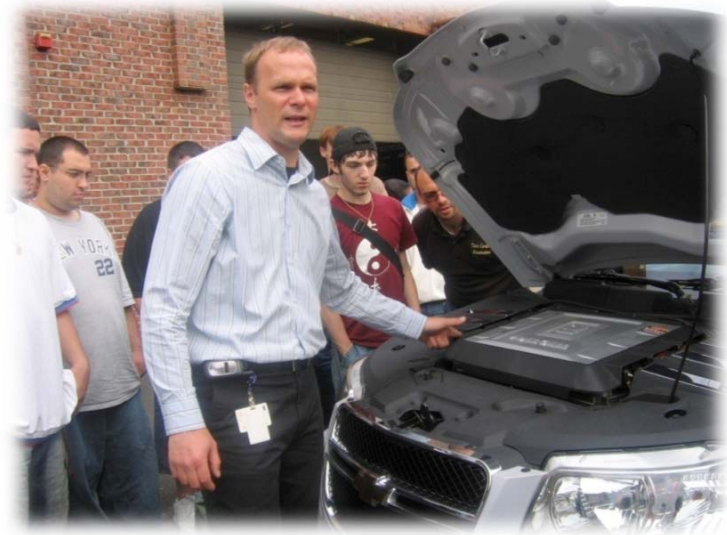

Program Partners

- Labor and Workforce Development Agency
 - California Employment Development Department (EDD)
Labor Market Information Division
 - Employment Training Panel
 - California Workforce Investment Board
 - 49 Local Workforce Investment Areas

Program Partners (cont.)

- California Community Colleges
- Department of Education
- Business, labor and community and industry organizations
- Utilities
- Department of Community Services and Development

Next Steps

- Work with partners to develop programs
- Public events June/July 2009
- Program roll-out July/August 2009

Comments by May 18 to:

Greenjobs@energy.state.ca.us

